From the Charlottesville Advocate. GEN. HARRISON'S FEDERALISM.

Harrisun's position in 1798 and 9, wrote to Mr. Southgate, a late member of Congress from Kentucky. lives just opposite Cincinnati, and who was a school-fellow of the Louisa gentleman,—asking the most direct and authentic information upon that subject. He received a letter from Mr. Southgate, encloing the following one from Judge Burnet, of Ohio. CINCINNATI, Feb. 27th, 1840.

Mr DEAR SIR-I remark, in reply to your letter of this morning, that during the contest between Mr. Jefferson and the elder Adams, Gen. Harrison and myself were residing in the North Western Territory, and of course had not the privilege of voting At that time, I was in habits of great inti-acy with Gen. Harrison; although I was a Federalist, honsaily so, and he a Republican of the Jefferson School. I supported Adams warmly, and he with equal warmth supported Mr. Jefferson. During that contraversy, from 1796 to 1800, inclusive, I conversed and argued with him times without num ber, he sustaining Mr. Jefferson, and I Mr. Adams. You may assure your friend, that there was not a more consistent, decided supporter of Mr. Jederson in the North Western Territory than Gen. H. For the truth of this declaration, I a ost willingly pledge my reputation.

I state to you what I saw, and beard, and know, When the Alien and Sedition Law passed, the General was not a member of Congress. He neither Your friend, J. BURNET.

LOG CABINS AND HARD CIDER.

It is laughable to see the Van Burea men "squirming" under the "hard cider and log eabin" charge; it sits badly on their stomachs, and the editor of a toons, Buckets, Tubs, Coffee Mil's, Coffee and Lece-foco paper in Cincionati has set himself Tea Pots, Patent Coffee Pots, Egg-Boilers, Steak down to prove that General Harrison does not live in a log cabin, and that his cider is all refined .-New that, in our opinion, is no answer .- The cider may be very hard, and yet greatly refined, just like kind of Cooking Utensils. the old man himself: he is "as hard and tough as a pine knot," and yet he is refined by early education and gentlemanly association.

The Loco-foco editor proceeds to say that General Harrison was born of "a wealthy and aristocratic Quite likely-his father was one of those old fashioned gentlemen of Virginia who put some thing at stake when he signed the Declaration of Independence. He was wealthy indeed-and William Henry Harrison, when he packed up his duds and followed Wayne, as a young lieutenant, to fight the Indians of the west, to state on the frontiers, for deriding him, made a sacrif colorate and elegant compared to his services in the eyes of his countrymen. He leved on the frontiers; and the whole southwestern portion of VIRGINIA, TO WIT:—At rules held in the Clerk's Office the country has grown up under his eye and by his sound judgment. A log cabin, indeed! Why, for years General Harrison has fixed in a way in which, by comparison, a log cabin would be a palace.

But against whom is our Van Buren friend proving the charge of falsehood, when he attempts to oscablish the fact that General Harrison does not live in a log cabin and drink hard ciler? charge, with all its grosness, was made by a regular Van Buren writer, and published in a regular Van Buren paper. Flushed with the enjoyment of badly acquired wealth, these cormorants thought it ould be sufficient to damn General Harrison by saying that he was a poor man in the west, occupying a log cabin and drinking hard eider. But the people see that palaces have risen under firection of men who have recently held offices for only a few years, and they suspect that it must be by ourse different from that pursued by Harrison, though whose hands millions of public money passed, and who is yet sneered at as the occupant of a log cabin and the drinker of hard cider.— The story of a log cabin will be an eye and heart sore to those who "r. ised" it-and cider which they are now con-pelled to drink, will be hard enough to make a pig squeat.

This cabin building, a sort of castle in the nir, ed this hard cider making, prove to be among the most unfortunate of the Van Buren manufactures. [U. S. Gaz.

ONE TERM. ORE TERM OF THE PRESIDENCY is now all the ery, and Gen. HARRISON is known to be devoted to that principle. In the language of the Whig addreso, it will make the Chief Magistrate "the President of the Nation by depriving him of a Partycompel him to be honest by withdrawing the temptation to be v cious-force him to administer the Government as the honored agent of a free people, and not as a guilty partzan, by depriving him of the hape and co-solation of a re-election." Nothing could be more effectual in arresting the tide of corraption abich is overwhelming us, and bringing hack the government to its original Republic an simplicity and purity. MOFFAT'S VEGETABLE LIFE MEDICINES.—
These Medicines are indebted for their name to their manifest action in purifying the springs and channels of life, and endaing them with renewed tone and vigor. In many certified cases which have been made public, and in almost every species of disease to which the human frame is liable, the happy effects of

Moffat's Life Pills and Phenix Bitters

Mogat's Life Pills and Phenix Bitters have been gratefully and publicly acknowledged by the persons benefitted, a d who were previously unacquainted with the beautifully philosophical principles upon which they are compounded, and upon which they consequently act.

The LIFE MEDICINES recommend themselves in diseases of every form and description. Their first operation is to inosen from the coats of the stomach and bowels, the various impurities and cradities constantly actiling around them, and to remove the hardened faces which collect in the convolutions of the small intestines. Other Medicines only partially cleanse these and leave such collected masses belond as to produce habitual costivenes, with all its train of evils, or and den diarrhea, with its imminent dangers. This fact is well known to all regular anatomists, who examine the human howels after death; and hence the premiser of these well informed men against quack Medicine. or Medicines prepared and heralded to the public by ignorant, persons. The second effect of the Lie Medicines is to cleanse the kidneys and the bladder, and by this means, the liver and the lungs, the healthful action of which entirely depends upon the regularity of the urinary organs.—The blood, which takes its red color from the agency of the liver and the lungs before it passes into the heart, being thus purified by them, and nourished by food coming from a clean stomach, courses freely through the veins, renews every part of the system, and triumphantly mounts the banner of health in the blooming cheek.

Tuese popular Pills being a combination of a newly discovered Alkaline substance, extracted from the TOMATO PLANT, with other vegetable substances which have been found to modify and diffuse its effects, are believed to be the best Alterative and Cathartic Medicine ever discovered. They have been aboutdantly and successfully tried, and have received universal approbation for Scrofula, Dyspepsia, Jaundice, Bilious Diseases, Gravel, Rhenmatism, Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Catarrh, Nervous Diseases, Acid Stomachs, Glandular Swellings of all kinds, Costiveness, Colic,

They are an antidote to Contagious and Epidemic diseases; prevent the formation of Bilious and Liver affections, Fever and Ague, &c., in those who reside in hot climates, and low and marshy countries, and are the best Cathartic that can be used for those localities. Seamen will find them an infallible remedy for the Scurvy; and Travellers, the best medicine they can use to counteract the dangers of exposure in unhealthy cli-mates. For ordinary FAMILY PHYSIC, they are universally approved, as the best

OF GREAT BARGAINS! 20 FOR CASH!!! Andrew C. Elliott RESPECTFULLY informs his friends and the public generally, that he now has on hand the

he has ever had it in his power to offer for sale and believing as he does, that the only safe mede of getting rid of it in these hard times, is to sell lowfer he has determined to offer his stock at a very SMALL ADVANCE, on the ORIGINAL COST,

Being so fully convinced of the great advantages . the cash system, both to sellers and buyers, he does not hesitate to say that he can better afford to sell at 5 per cent advance, for cash, than 25 per cent, on the usual time given in Lynchburg. And knowing that purchasers will protect their own inter; est when great advantages are offered, he feels es tirely sangume of his ability to adhere to the cash system with the utmost rigor in future.

The following articles are a part of the stock of fered under the new system, a d to which public at tention is most carnesily invited. All he asks is to examine his stock after looking at other places, and the can't offer sufficient inducements to purchasers to trade, he is perfectly willing they shall go elsewhere He would have the public distinctly to understand that he does not either wish or expect to sell any article at higher rates than it can be had in this mat-
